REMEMBER:

If you have ordered an item in your usual pre-pregnancy size, as is recommended, and it seems too large, don't forget that maternity wear is cut and styled to fit you in the latter months of pregnancy too! Something that seems too big now may fit you at 7 or 8 months! Please bear this in mind when deciding whether or not to return an item.

Please do not remove any tags until you are sure that you are happy with your order.

Refunds cannot be given for personal items, such as briefs, but an exchange will be given if the item is faulty.
